

Examples of out of Parallel Loops

Note that no attempt has been made to match the views here combinations of causes are infinite and loops may be observed out of parallel in line with the casting direction or at right angles to it or both.

Looking back towards the caster or observing from directly behind often gives the best view of loops.

In assessing whether a loop is parallel the effects of gravity must be considered.