

Study Group

[GH] From Troy Miller :

"...the clarity of the explanations is born of the clarity of the thoughts..."

While his English may not be perfect, Alejandro's above statement is! I firmly believe it takes clear and broad vision in order to truly distill the complex to the simple.

Additionally, I believe it requires a strong dose of humility to understand that ALL of us are students - from the utter novice to the most proficient and enlightened. I am grateful that fly-casting and its instruction are journeys without end.

PLEASE don't stop, Gordy. This is a great and historic endeavor directly benefitting 339 (and counting) people -- and indirectly benefitting 100,000 more...

[GH] From Rick Whorwood on our setting up a Study Group:

Hi Gordy

It's been 13 years since we first discussed this on your flat's Skiff Ocean side "Wow" !!

It's truly amazing what you have accomplished with this very simple idea (having a better understanding of what is expected when being tested at the Masters Level). There are a lot of people (like) myself, who had virtually no one to turn to for help when preparing for the test (the group has more then accomplished this). I'm very proud of what you have done !!

Looking forward to seeing you in the spring!!

Rick
